

Conference of Edgar Morin on the reforms necessary for the XXI Century

In October 2009, during an international event organized in Paris by the Cultural Council of the Union for the Mediterranean and the KIP Initiative, Edgar Morin held a conference on the reforms necessary for the XXI Century. During the event, the DVD edited by the KIP Scientific Committee, which presents the conference, has been disseminated. The video is available in the documents section of the International School website.

text of the conference in French
text of the conference in English
text of the conference in Spanish