

KIP PAVILION AT EXPO 2015

SUMMER SCHOOL ON SUSTAINABLE HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

From 1 August to 13 September 2015, a Summer School on Sustainable Human Development will be held in the KIP Pavilion at Expo.

The Summer School is organized by Università di Milano Bicocca and the KIP International School with its Universitas Programme, in collaboration with the Intercultural Development Research Institute (Portland, Oregon, USA), the National University General Sarmientos (Buenos Aires, Argentina), Columbia University (New York, USA), the National University Arturo Aretche (Buenos Aires, Argentina), the Universidad Sancti Spiritus (Cuba) and the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de Nicaragua.

The project is directed by Professors Alberto Giasanti and Luciano Carrino and the Summer School is coordinated by Professor Ida Castiglioni. Candidates are invited to send their request with a CV, a motivation letter and a reference letter to Stefano Marras: email marras.stefano@gmail.com by July 10th 2015.

To know more

Programme of the Summer School in English

Programme of the Summer School in Spanish

Programme of the Summer School in Italian